

THE PATRIOT
1952

On our City's western border
Reared against the sky
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years go by.

Forward ever be our watchword
Conquer and prevail
Hail! to thee our Alma Mater
Allen High, All Hail!

DEDICATION

MR. GEORGE MYERS, OUR JANITOR

Because of his outstanding loyalty and love for Allen County High and its students and because of the personal devotion which binds us to him, we affectionately dedicate this 1952 edition of The Patriot to Mr. George Myers, our janitor, who has served us since the establishment of Allen County High in 1941.

To love the beautiful, to desire the good.

PAT PITCHFORD
Never change when love has found its home.

RAY STOVALL
Ask and learn.

LORAN GUY
Hold the fort ! I am coming.

WAYNE CHANDLER
It is easier not to speak a word at all than to speak more words than we should.

EUGENE JOHNSON
He can talk his way out of--well, almost anything.

GWEN ERWIN
Where there is music, there can be no harm.

LAVERNE FOSTER
Softly speak and sweetly smile.

NOVICE CLINE
A smile is a whisper of a laugh.

PROPHECY

I am a student of the ancient and modern art of fortelling the future and have studied the technique of the oracles of ancient Egypt and Greece. I was chosen by the members of the graduating class to delve into the future and see what the coming years hold for each member. I have watched the flights of birds, studied the stars, observed the tea leaves, and peered into the crystal ball and have the following report for the year of 1957.

Anna Hurt-is the wife of a soldier stationed in Europe.

Patty Pitchford and Alcy Ann Gillenwater-are having a wonderful time playing the role of housewife and mother.

Joe Meador-is in his first term as assistant tax collector.

Joy Douglas-is working as a model for shampoo advertisements.

Bobbie Sue Meador-had a very prosperous pet shop, specializing in lovebirds.

Morris Dinwiddie-is now in his first year of coaching after graduating from U. of L.

Hilton Vance and Weldon Foster-are the owners of Carpenter-Dent Drug Co. They learned the business during their high school afternoons.

Virginia Sue Thomas-has just been appointed assistant director of the Economic Research Board for Kentucky.

Cecil Harwood-received the 1956 T. V. award for being the best comedian.

Gwen Erwin-is working on her Masters Degree in bio-chemistry at the University of Chicago.

Gay Duke-has had her first book published, Live Alone and Love It. Critics have given it good reviews and have proclaimed Gay a most promising young writer.

Patsy Arterburn-has a promising future on the stage after appearing in two Broadway plays.

Dumus Chism-has opened a business in Fountain Run. He will pay you highest prices for your junk.

Eugene Johnson-is Allen County's Contribution to the Indianapolis speeding Drivers Association.

Geraldine Rich-has moved to Tennessee where she and her husband are developing a new heart-shape strawberry.

Sue Nell Broughton-not wishing to follow in the steps of her sister, married immediately following graduation and now resides in the Meador Cummunity.

Wayne Chandler is the bachelor of the class. He says: "A Woman may make the ideal pet for some but I prefer a good hound dog."

Genell Carver is working full time at Atwood Drug.

Willa Dean Clark-like so many other young wives, is working at the Red Cross Center at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base so that she may be near her husband.

Wayne Graves-is one of the most progressive farmers-he took Mr. Whitlow's teaching seriously.

Novice Cline-having followed the natural way, is married and living in Louisville.

Louise Conner is now a nurse at the Allen County Memorial Hospital.

Roger Smith-studied economics in high school and went into business after graduation. He owns Smith's Store on Wheels which travels all roads in Allen County.

Ruby Nell Cooper-has her own beauty shoppe in Bowling Green.

Barbara Cornwell is clerk in a dress shop in Glasgow.

Jim Claiborne-is playing center on Claiborne Brothers Professional Basketball Team.

Dixie Stovall-Private Secretary for Kentucky's U. S. Junior Senator in Washington D. C. with several stenographers working under her.

La Verne Napier-pursuing her M. A. Degree at Peabody College for Teachers and maintaining her "A" Standard.

PROPHECY

Attrice Costello-is receptionist for Dewey R. Carver, Scottsvill's new dentist.

Shirley Downing-is making a tour of the East as a concert pianist.

Bobby Ogles-now living in Hollywood, has finished his first film, "Handsome Men of the Blue Grass State."

Clemons Wolfe-is secretary for the City Water and Gas Company.

Novice Smith-is another of our class who is contented with being just a housewife.

Gordon Ballard-is now assistant warden Atlanta Federal Penitentiary. He says it is because of Mr. Foster's Sociology class.

LaVerne Foster-is teaching school in one of our county schools.

Gordon Absher-now is known as "honest Ab". He will give you the highest dollar for your old car.

William Oaks-is now an agriculture professor at U.K.

Ray Stovall-is now in the lumber business. Just another chip off the old block.

Charles Fisher-an expert pin-ball player.

Margaret Berry-Living in Louisville, Married and raising red-heads.

Barbara Miller-The Dietician at Allen County's Memorial Hospital.

Wm. Loran Guy-he's now managing for Uncle Sam.

Jack Johnson-believe it or not he is a preacher.

Carlston Pardue-is now co-owner of the Whitney farm along with his father.

Delmas Profitt-is still working on a new way to lay bricks without using mortar.

Howard Shelton-a graduate from Business College and is well established in his own business.

Lee Harry McElroy-a child psychologist who has developed a cure for thumb sucking.

Joan Landrum is reading scientific magazines to find out which came first the chicken or the egg.

Pearl Hurt-is seeing the world working as airline hostess for T.W.A.

Minnie Lee Marcrum-is a commercial teacher at B. G. B. U.

Dorothy Fowler-is a bookkeeper for American Silk Mills.

Earline Gilliam-Principal of Mount Union "Academy for Girls."

Betty Harrison Howard-is happily teaching her children to speak softly like their mother.

Lois Hood-established a "Free Library" in Scottsville and is working as "head Librarian.

Wanda Keen-is now singing over Station Wx3 Scottsville, Ky., all those songs she copied while attending A. C. H. S.

Ruby Nell Meader-stenographer in the office of the Allen County Tax Commissioner.

Imogene Motley-as a wife, makes a fine income designing clothes.

Wanda Renick-is teacher of shorthand in the new school at Meador.

Valoise Smith-has now married a Smith but still worries because her name didn't change.

June Spurlock has now fulfilled her high school ambition to ba an outstanding secretary for the President.

Virginia Turner-working as head clerk in Smith Dept. store at Gainesville.

Glidewell Foster-has studied the Webster Dictionary until he can now talk without knowing the meaning of his words.

Bobby Cline-District-engineer for Kentucky Department of Highways.

Glen Cox-writing wise cracks for the Bob Hope Show.
